Christian Persecution in Iran

Strengthening the Church in the midst of oppression

With guest speaker

LAZARUS YEGHNAZAR

of 222 Ministries

and Paul Robinson, CEO Release International

Mon Mar 8 / 7.30pm-8.45pm

Scotland Region Zoom

Christians in Iran face relentless persecution as the authorities try to stem the growth of the Christian church. Join us for an inspiring evening as we hear of gospel witness continuing in the face of oppression.

Lazarus Yeghnazar is from an Armenian background. Converted as a child, he became a church leader in Iran and was twice imprisoned in his early 20s for his gospel preaching. He and his wife later felt called to leave the country. From the West he now runs 222 Ministries International that seeks to train church leaders, plant churches and disciple believers in Iran.
