 Please pray for the children at an orphanage in Agra, India. Hindu extremists told the police that the adults who look after the children  were making them believe in Jesus when they did not want to. This was a lie. Thank God that the police did not believe them and did not arrest the adults. Ask God to fill the hearts of the children and adults with His peace and love. Pray they will be brave and not scared. Ask God to keep them safe from lies and attacks.

 Dear Jesus,
Keep blessing the children and families in Sri Lanka who were killed and hurt in the bombings on Easter Sunday. Be very very close to them as they are so sad, scared and shocked. Heal them and fill them with Your love.

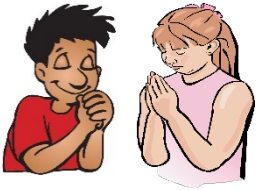

Write these words in the right order to show the Bible verse - Psalm 56:4 (GNT). Pray these words over children who suffer because they love Jesus.

Dear Father God,

Please be very close to children in Algeria who cannot see their Dad anymore. When he became a Christian, their Mum's family made their Mum leave him so he cannot be with his children. Please bless their hearts as they miss their Dad very much and he misses them. Help their Dad trust You. Give him Your hope, strength and great love. Please help the children and their Mum to believe in Jesus and live with their Dad again. Help their Mum be brave and keep all the family safe. Help her family believe in Jesus too. Thank you. Amen.

Dear Jesus,

Be very close to a 7 year old child who saw Mum and Dad taken away by police in Iran because they love and follow You. They were all at home when the police came and arrested the child's parents. The Dad is called Amir Taleipour and the Mum is Mahnaz Harati. Jesus please help this child not be scared but to trust You and know Your love more than ever before. Set the Mum and Dad free from prison so they can all be together again. Help the Mum and Dad to trust You to look after their child as they must be so worried. Keep them all safe. Fill their hearts with Your love. Help the police believe in You too. Amen.

Pray for children and young people in Uzbekistan. Pray for a boy and his Mum who love Jesus. The Mum's name is Lolakhon Umarova. The police wanted the Mum to say bad things about her pastor. She said "No" so the police made her family throw her and her son out of their home. Ask God to find them somewhere safe and lovely to live. Young people are forced by police to sign papers that tell lies about their pastor. Ask God to fill these youngsters with His power, love and truth.
