RAMESH, SRI LANKA

Ramesh died while stopping an Islamist suicide bomber from entering Zion Evangelical Church on Easter morning 2019.

He saw a stranger carrying a large backpack into the church courtyard and accosted him. The man said it contained a video camera as he had come to film the service. Sensing this was wrong, Ramesh told him that he needed to get permission to film, and he forced him to leave. Moments later the man detonated his bomb. 28 Christians were killed including Ramesh and children enjoying a snack after their Sunday school class. Ramesh's self-sacrificing action saved hundreds of lives.

Please pray for Ramesh's wife and two children who are mourning the loss of their dad. Pray also for the other families who lost children in the blast.

Thank God that Release's partner in Sri Lanka is able to bring comfort and support to those affected by the bombing and runs recuperative summer camps for persecuted Christians.
