Pray for persecuted children!

It is wonderful when children around the world get Bibles in their own language. They are so excited to read and hear about Jesus' love for them in words they understand. Match the children's Bible to the language and country it comes from. Christians in these countries can be hurt because they follow Jesus. (Answers on next page).

Dear Jesus,

Please help your children all around the world to get Bibles in their own languages so they can read and hear of Your wonderful love for them. Help them share Your love and their Bibles to bring many other children and adults to know Your love. Make them strong and brave as they read about how much You love them and died for them. Let them know You are with them. Amen.

Dear Father God,

Please bless the 11-year-old boy in northeast Nigeria who saw his Dad shot dead by Fulani herdsmen. The boy, whose Mum had been killed in a previous attack, was shot in the leg. Please fill this boy with Your Daddy love. Make him strong so he can face every day when he misses his Mum and Dad. Please heal his leg by Your power, and give him Christian family and friends to hug, love and be there for him. Help him to know his Mum and Dad are with Jesus in heaven and he will see them again one day. Help him to remember the happy times they shared and keep him safe in Your arms of love.

Dear God,

Be close to Safqan and Gulnar Mammadov who held a children's meeting in Azerbaijan. They wanted children to find out how much Jesus loved them. However, they got in big trouble for teaching the children and having Bibles. They had to pay a lot of money. Let them know Your great love and that You are with them. Keep them brave and safe as they tell more children about Jesus. Use them to help many children be filled with Jesus' love and joy.

Put these words in the right order to make the Bible verse.

Lord	in	He	always	the	(Isaiah 26:4)
us. ^{9*}	forever;	protect	^{6*} Trust	will

Dear Jesus,

Please help Your children around the world to know this Bible verse is true. You will always look after them whatever happens. Help them trust You and Your powerful love. Let them know that You hold them in Your arms and that You will never let them go. Amen.
