These are things that we need to make us safe, healthy and happy. Children who are hurt and attacked with their families because they love Jesus often do not get these things that we all enjoy every day.

Dear Jesus,

Please bless all children who are suffering because they or their families have been attacked, injured and even killed. We pray that You would work in Your great power to bring peace and safety to Your persecuted children. Help them be able to go to school and not be bullied or hurt. Keep them safe as they go to church. Protect them from attacks and look after the children and families who have to run away from their homes to stay alive. Give them new, safe, warm homes as well as fresh water and food. Help them to get the medicines they need and, most of all, let them know how much You love them and are always with them to take care of them. Thank You. Amen.

Dear Lord,

By Your great power, please bring an end to the wars in Syria and Yemen. Many children and their families are among those who have been bombed out of their homes. They may have to walk miles to find safe places to live. It is very dangerous and some countries do not want them. Help them to know that You love them. Thank You for Christians who are reaching out to them with food, tents and blankets. Help Christians to pray with them and tell them about Jesus and bring them Your hope and love. Keep them safe and give them what they need - especially, medicines and doctors. Thank You, Lord.

Dear Father God,

Shine Your love brightly in the hearts of Your children who are being hurt, bullied and attacked because they love Jesus. Fill their lives with Your light and hope and take their sadness, fear and darkness away. Thank You. Amen.

Dear Jesus,

Please keep children safe who have been taken away from their families because their Mums and Dads believe in You. Let them know Your arms of love holding them tightly. Protect them from being hurt. By Your power, help them to get back to their families and help them to trust You.

Dear Jesus,

Please bless children whose friends have left them because they love You. Help them to make new friends who believe in You and bless them with happy times together.
