Violent Christian Persecution in Nigeria

Serving Christ and the gospel in a hostile nation

A Release Online evening with
REVD HASSAN JOHN

Tues Nov 3 / 7.30pm
Scotland supporters

Christians continue to suffer violent attack and slaughter in northern Nigeria, at the hands of radical Islamists. Join us to hear inspiring stories of responding to persecution with the gospel of God's grace.

Hassan John is a Nigerian-born journalist, community development worker and Anglican minister. In 2014 he broke the news of the abduction of 276 girls by the Islamist group Boko Haram in Chibok.

In north-east Nigeria he has worked among those displaced by violence, assisting vulnerable children to receive an education and enabling young men and women to become active members of their local communities.
