Dear Jesus,

Thank You that two teenagers in Uganda - Joshua and Shamil - are being so brave. Their Dad beat them because they believe in You but they won't stop loving and following You even though they were badly hurt. Keep them safe in Your all-powerful arms of love and give them great joy. Speak to their Dad so he believes in You too.

Dear Jesus,

Please protect young Christian girls - some as young as 12 - who are kidnapped in Pakistan. They are taken away from their families and made to marry men who are much older. Please put an end to these kidnappings by Your mighty power and get the girls safely back to their families! Keep them from being brainwashed and feeling so scared that they won't say what has happened to them. Fill their hearts with Your love, truth and peace. Let them remember You are the only God! Keep them and their families safe from attack. Pour Your love into the hearts of the people that hurt them so they believe in You and let the girls go. Amen.

Dear Father God,

Help all Your children around the world know that whenever they feel scared, You are right there beside them and they can trust You. Help them cry out to You and know You always hear and You always answer prayers. Help them to be brave and let them feel Your arms of love wrapped tightly around them, keeping them safe and taking away their fears. Let them know for sure that Your love for them will go on and on - on Earth and forever in heaven.

Dear God,

Please bless and heal Mum Saratu and her seven children in Nigeria. They had to hide in the kitchen when attackers shot and killed their Dad and set their house on fire. They ran away terrified. Please give them a new home, school and most of all Your great love, peace, hope and happiness.
