Arrest and background

Pastor Wang Yi is the influential leader of Early Rain Covenant Church in the city of Chengdu, Sichuan province – one of the best-known house churches in China. During a police raid in December 2018 he and his wife, Jiang Rong, were arrested and detained along with around 100 members of their church. The Pastor was charged with ‘inciting subversion of state power’ and ‘illegal business operations.’ In December 2019 he was convicted of those crimes, fined, and sentenced to 9 years in prison. He decided not to appeal this sentence but to calmly accept the outcome and trust God’s sovereignty. A former law professor, Pastor Wang Yi has been vocal in calling on the state to uphold religious liberties.

Early Rain Covenant Church had been under pressure from the authorities for some time but matters escalated on December 9th, 2018. That night and the next day, police raided church members’ homes and arrested them. By the end of the week the church had been forcibly closed. Most of those arrested were released in the following weeks and months including Pastor Wang’s wife, Jiang (released 11th June 2019), and church elder Li Yingqiang (released 19th August 2019). However, those who have been released remain under varying levels of surveillance. Pastor Wang Yi’s family has been subject to 24-hour surveillance. Joshua (Wang Li’s son) previously attended a Christian school, but now authorities escort him to public school every day.

Since the crackdown some Early Rain church members have been sent back to their hometowns and banned from Chengdu. Others have lost their jobs or been evicted. Church elder Su Bingsen was released in April 2019 and was flown home to Fujian in the company of security officials; his family had been evicted from their home while he was in custody. Some of those who have been released say they were abused and deprived of food and water.

Early Rain may have been targeted because of its open approach to church mission, which has included posting sermons online and street evangelism. The church also runs a Bible school for about 100 students and has a primary school. Its meetings around the city regularly attracted more than 800 people each week.

Pastor Wang himself has been a prominent campaigner for greater religious freedom. In 2018 he wrote a declaration, signed by hundreds of Chinese pastors, which includes a statement of Christian beliefs and a call for an end to persecution; it also recognises the Chinese Government's authority. Many of those in China who have signed the 'Declaration for the Sake of the Christian Faith' have suffered persecution since.

News about Pastor Wang Yi has been blocked since his arrest in 2018 and people know little about his situation. However, recently his wife Jiang Rong was able to visit him in prison. This was their first meeting in over three years since his arrest. Jiang reported that her husband is healthy, although he has lost a lot of weight. He has also been allowed to read in prison. Members of his family and Early Rain Covenant Church were thankful for the visit. They said, 'Although we know little about it, we believe that the Lord protects his servant in the dark.'

PLEASE PRAY:

1. That God will sustain, encourage and comfort Pastor Wang Yi. Ask God to give him opportunities to share his faith and love his fellow inmates and guards.
2. That the Early Rain congregation will grow in faith and courage, amid sustained persecution. Pray that their powerful witness will inspire and encourage other Christians in Sichuan province and across China.
3. That the Chinese Government will end its persecution of Early Rain Covenant Church.
