

Dear God,

Please be with the children and families in Pakistan who are suffering from the terrible floods. Many of their homes have been swept away and they have lost everything. Be very close to them as they are so scared and shocked. Hold them close - especially, those who are very sad because their loved ones have been drowned. Help the Christian children and families get the help they need: food, water, medicines and shelter. Do not let them be left out because they follow and love Jesus. Use your people to show love and help to others so they can believe in and follow Jesus too.

Dear Jesus,

Be very near the children and youth in the terrifying prison camps in North Korea. Many are sent there with their families because their parents love and follow You. Help them to be very brave. Let them feel You with them every second of the day and night. Give them enough food and water to keep healthy. Protect them and their loved ones from being hurt, beaten or killed. Hold them in Your arms of love and never let them go. Give them hope like nobody else can. Help other prisoners and guards see Your love through Your children, youth and families and come to You. Amen.

Dear Jesus,

Help the children and youth in China who have police or guards watching them all day and night - even inside their homes! The police do not want them and their families to pray to You, read the Bible, talk with other Christians or learn about Your love. It is very hard to be watched all the time and have no freedom to do what they want. Please give them Your peace, strength, happiness and hope in their hearts and minds. Help them, Jesus, to remember that You love them greatly and that nobody can stop Your love and truth. Help them show Your love to the police and guards so they believe in You too and feel Your amazing love.

Dear God,

Please protect three girls who were kidnapped ten years ago by tribal villagers in Ejariguda, India. Their Dad, whose name is Podia Madkham, leads a house church and teaches about the love of Jesus. He misses his daughters very much. By Your great power, bring the girls home safely so they can live happily with their Dad. Help the girls and their Dad remember that You are the only God and You are with them ALWAYS, wherever they are.

Dear God,

Give great strength to your children and youth in Afghanistan. It is very dangerous to believe in Jesus in Afghanistan. The Taliban soldiers look for Christians to take them away or kill them. Please keep the children and their families safe by Your Almighty power. Change the minds of the Taliban, so that girls are allowed to go to secondary school and University and can follow their dreams! Keep the girls safe from being married off to Taliban soldiers. Keep the boys safe from being forced to become Taliban soldiers. Make a way for Your love, Your truth and Your justice to reign!

Be a detective and crack the code to work out this month's Bible verse: a = 1, b = 2, c = 3, etc.

Dear Jesus,

Give Your strength and power to all children and youth and their families who are attacked, hurt and bullied because they love You. Heal their minds and bodies. Keep them safe and fill them with Your love, peace and hope.
