Dear Jesus,

Be very close to a boy in India whose Mum, named Indrakla, was arrested at his birthday party because she is a Christian. She was accused of forcing people to become Christians which is not true. The boy's Mum has been attacked and threatened. Protect them and fill them with Your love, strength and hope. Help them trust You to help them and stop these attacks and bullying. Amen.

Dear God,

Thank You for saving Danjuma in Nigeria when he was brutally attacked at 13 years of age. He was attacked by machetes, blinded and left for dead because of his faith in Jesus Christ. Thank You God for healing him and for getting Danjuma through many operations. 8 years later, he is now able to go to secondary school. Please help him do very well in all his lessons. Thank You that Danjuma continues to love and follow You. Keep him safe. Thank You that he has shown Jesus' love and has forgiven those who attacked him. May his attackers come to know Jesus as their Saviour, friend and Lord.

Put this Bible verse from Isaiah 41:13 (NIV) in the right order:

your God,

I will help you."

Dear Jesus,

Please let all persecuted children know that You are beside them, holding their right hand, telling them You will always help them and will never leave them.

Dear Jesus,

Please help the children and families who had to leave their church and country in China because they have been persecuted and treated very harshly by the authorities there. They fled to South Korea but South Korea will not let them stay. Hold the children in Your arms so they feel safe and not scared. Help them find a country where they are welcomed and secure. Help them find a new home, school and church where they can pray and sing to You in joy and peace.

Dear God,

Please protect the children and their Mum, called Falida Nazziwa, in Uganda. Their Dad hit their Mum badly when he found out she had become a Christian. He left them all and never went back. Please give them all they need - food and drink, a safe home, a loving church, a job and money, a good school and medical care. Fill their hearts and minds with Your beautiful love, comfort, peace, courage, strength and joy. Help their Dad believe in Jesus too. Amen.
