

BROTHER, I HAVE COME TO ARREST YOU

Christian persecution in Eritrea

with Release International partner Dr Berhane Asmelash

Tue 20 Aug / 7.30pm

Buccleuch Free Church

10 West Crosscauseway, Edinburgh EH8 9JP

Dr Berhane Asmelash works tirelessly to serve persecuted Christians in Eritrea who face the constant threat of arrest and imprisonment in brutal conditions. Berhane himself was previously jailed for his faith and his new book, Brother, I have come to arrest you, tells his compelling story of conviction, courage and service.

Join us to hear Berhane share his story and learn more about the work Release International is doing to support persecuted Christians in Eritrea.

'The world should know of the suffering and bravery of thousands of Eritreans, barbarically imprisoned, tortured, and killed – simply on account of their beliefs.' Fiona Bruce MP

There will be an opportunity to contribute to the work of Release International on the evening. But if you are unable to attend and would like to make a donation please visit www.releaseinternational.org
